Chas Steuarauch, who was arrested last winter at St. Louis for counterfeiting greenbacks and brought to this city and lodged in Old Capitol Prison, has been released through the indirect operation of a writ of habeas corpus. The release of the prisoner is a crime punishable only by civil court. His counsel in St. Louis made application to Judge Olin, of the Supreme Court of the District, for the writ, which was granted and served upon the keeper of the prison. In the meantime Wood hastily sent the prisoner to St. Louis, made a return to the writ, and on the day set for the return of the writ Wood made a return of the fact, which ended the matter.
